ANOTHER PROSPEROUS DAY

LEXINGTON RACING AGAIN WELL ATTENDED AND THE SPORT PROVES INTERESTING.

Ada Meade Wins in a Canter-Four Favorites Reward Their Backers.

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—The Kentucky Association booked another small profit for the second day of the spring meeting. The weather was beautiful, then was beautiful, attendance larger, possibly than was expected and the racing interesting. There was improvement in the betting, the speculators having a better line on the borses than they had on Saturday. The first four races were won by favorites, and that will have the effect of giving the smart set confidence in their judgment. J. C. Milam's stable furnished two of the winners in Ada Meade and Eya Tanguay, and jockey A. Walsh piloted two, Balbus and Creel. In the judges' stand today were president J. N. Camden, Sanford Lyne and Secretary Shelley.

The feature race, a mile handicap, resulted in a rousing finish between Zipango and Tom Doian noses separating them at the finish. The pair had measured strides nearly all the way of the stretch and their desperate struggle created intense excitement. Roseburg II. finished well up, and with better riding might have won. The showing of Terah in the race was also creditable, and he should improve vastly, as he gave indications of being a trifle short.

Next in interest to the handicap was the six-prove vasily, as he gave indications of being a trifle short.

Next in interest to the handicap was the sixfurlongs purse, in which Balbus and Ovelando met. The pair apparently outclassed the others, and they finished in the provided of the control of the contr

Phil Igoe and Arthur Board, stockholders in the Lexington track and own-ers of Belarius and other horses, were visitors today, having come over from Louisville. RACING GOSSIP FROM PIMLICO.

RACING GOSSIP FROM PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., April 26.—Cross-country rider McKinney has received an offer from Thomas Hitchcock, dr., to ride in France, but he will stay here for the remainder of the Pimlico meeting at least, Several horses in the Turney stable, which were shipped here from Memphis, are ailing. One of his two-year-olds died Saturday morning, and the two three-year-olds, Theo Cook and Sig, are in bad shape. The reports of T. S. Martin's breakdown are not aitogether unfounded. The horse went wrong in one of his tendons and had to be let up on, but he is out and galloping again at Pimlico and his trainer hopes to see him stand and win again in his old brilliant style.

Several of the youngsters in the Walden stable are coughing. The pick of the youngsters in this lot is said to be Beau Chilton, a colt by Chilton-Relle Acton. He is a grand looker and has shown much speed in his work. Beau Chilton is the property of A. H. & D. H. Morris, and he has been nominated to the Doncaster St. Leger and Grand Prix de Paris of 1910 by R. W. Walden.

VANDERBILT STABLE'S BUSY SUNDAY.

Paris, April 26.—In the races here Sunday, horses from the stable of William K. Vanderbilt won one race and twice secured third places. In the Prix de la Seine, a race at one and one-half miles for three-year-olds and upward, his Chandos, by Ellsmere—Fredericka, won, but his stablemate, Raleigh, by Ellsmere—Reinetta, was unplaced. Nego-fol, by Childwick—Nebrouze, ran third in the fifty-first renewal of the Biennial Stakes of $5,000 at one mile and seven furlongs, and in the Prix de Boulozne at one and one-quarter miles, Cornstalk, by Ellsmere—Constanzia, obtained third place.

An American Idea of the Action at Beautiful Sandown Park Race Course.

New York, April 26.—The Herald's descriptive cable from Sandown Park, Eng., about Thursday's racing says:

"Sandown differs in several ways from Epsom other than in miles. I was at the races there today and it is a track you come away from feeling you have had your money's worth.

"To begin with. Epsom smelled mainly of bad tobacco smoke, while Sandown smelled like newmown hay. That's enough to influence any horse and many human beings.

"An and the sandown smelled mainly of bad tobacco smoke, while Sandown smelled like newmown hay. That's enough to influence any horse and many human beings.

"The other was the sandown smelled it with the sand confortable. In these respects it isn't even second cousin to Epsom, where I was jostled and had my toes stepped on all yesterday afternoon. Of course, there was no such tremendous crowd there, but it was a big crowd all the same. "The odd thing about it all is that, while Sandown is fifteen degrees more swell than Epsom, it is cheaper. At Epsom it costs $5 for admission to the grandstand, $5 more to get-on-the-reserved lawn, where you must go if you want to see a race without spending a fortune, for a box, and $2.50 to 20 in the paddock. That's $12.50.

"A lady with a decided American accent was sitting back of me on one of the lawn benches. I heard her say to her commanion: Where do people go who don't pay anything? "They don't go here, he replied, that's the answer.

"All must pay sixty cents to $4.25. There is not "Danny Maher rode twice this afternoon and almost won one race. He kicked because he didn't. The kick didn't go. "'It would be very interesting if it were so,' said one bookie. 'Unfortunately the money hasn't arrived yet.'
"The paddock at Sandown is like a cross between an open-air performance of 'The Sporting Duchess' and a fashionable garden party.
"Beautifully gowned women, escorted by officers from the Guards or distinguished city financiers, sweep around the closely clipped lawn, hedged by blossoming flower gardens and magnificent trees, and mingle with the blanketed racers, led by keen-faced little stable boys. It was one of the prettiest slights you can imagine, lit up by the gentle English sunshine.
"The wet blanket is going back to London by train, I'll tell you about that later. It's 'bunk.' So at least it appears to me, an American race-goor."

One of the best-looking horses in the Seagram Canadian stable is Courtier, a King's Plate candi-date, by Paladin—Sybil, by Uncas. Mr. Seagram Canadian stable is Courtier, a King's Frate candiate, by Paladin—Sybil, by Uncas. Mr. Seagram bought the Uncas mare, Sybil, when with foal to Courtier, because of the blood lines of the mare, which returns to this country a strain that made Canada famous years ago. Sybil is a daughter of the great broodmare. Roxaline, whose progeny did so much to give Woodstock a great reputation as a breeding center. She produced one winner of the Plate, Willie W., by Princeton, which carried the colors of Ras Burgess in 1885. Easter, Princess Louise, Brait, Fred B., April Fool, Roquefort and other winners also acknowledge Roxaline as their dam, The opportunity to revive the ancient clories of this line naturally appealed to Mr. Seagram, and he could not let this mare pass into any other hands when she was sent up to one of the Haggin sales.

MR. DURYEA STARTS FOR FRANCE.

New York, April 26.—H. B. Duryea left for France Saturday. John Huggins, who, it was announced, would go to France this spring, has decided to stay in this country. He will be at the pier to see Mr. Duryea off, but will not make the trip himself. The colors of Mr. Duryea will be represented in America this season by old Dreamer, one of the many good sons of Forget, and three Irish Lad two-year-olds. The little string is in the care of Simon Healey at Sheepshead Bay and recent training reports indicate that they will ably earn their way during the season.

HOUSTON MEETING OPENS PROMISINGLY.

Houston, Tex., April 26.—This was the opening day of the spring meeting of the Houston Racing Association and a large crowd was on band to see the sport. The track was in excellent condition and the helds well balanced.

Transform and Cooney K. were well liked in the opening dash and they went to the post heavily backed. A keen struggle resulted and the result was in doubt until the numbers were displayed. Transform winning by a slight margin. Virgie Casse was the only other favorite to score during the afternoon. A large consignment of horses arrived today from San Antonio, which, together with those that came from California, will give Secretary Dernham plenty of material to furnish his daily programs.

John Ferriss' stable, which was in training throughout the winter at Cumberland Park, Nashrille, will arrive Wednesday at Churchill Downs in charge of trainer Roy Cassady. Ferriss has some useful racers, among them being St. Volma, Bonnie Kate, Ada O. Walker, Olambala and several promising two-year-olds. Olambala belongs to J. G. Rome Respess is gratified over the skowing of Wintergreen in the mile Derby trial at Lexington on Saturday. He arrived yesterday at Churchill Downs with the colt. "Wintergreen came up to expectations," said Respess. "I think I have the winner of the Kentucky Derby."

Turfmen here say that Sir Cateshy, T. P. Hayes' Derby elligible, is by no means eliminated from the race on account of his showing at Lexington. He is classed as a green colt with much speed.

An effort is to be made to get Dave Nicol to ride one of the Derby starters.

PRESS MUZZLING MEASURE KILLED.

New York Assembly Rules Committee Will Not Report Latest Agnew Bill.

New York, April 26.—The assembly rules committee will not report the bill of Senator Agnew which was proposed as a chaser for the Hart-Agnew anti-race track bills of a year ago and which was designed to prevent newspapers from publishing betting odds. Although some of the anti-race track betting people have urged favorable action on the action on the committee. This is the end of legislation against the race track and its various branches for some time to come.

Toronto, Ont., April 25.—The Woodbine course dries out rapidly this spring and was in fairly good condition yesterday after the rain. The Woodstock Stable Platers, Table Bay and Supper Dance, had a good gallop of a mile. They are about the most advanced of the Plate candidates stabled here. Tom Smith's Out of Step worked a half mile in 53 seconds with jockey J. Foley up.

Trainer Shields had Mr. Davies' Plater. Shore Lark, out. This fellow is pretty unruly and does his work on a lead. Shields is negotiating for a contract on little Charlie Phair, who can ride at less than seventy pounds and looks like making a useful boy in the saddle.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Chelsea Stable, which is trained by Preston Barch, has obtained first call on jockey Nicol for the Baltimore meeting.

The amateur racing season opened last Saturday with the Rockaway Hunting Club's hunter and pony races at the old Cedarbrook course in New York

Since California racing ceased jockey J. Lee's ave got worse. He is now under a specialist's fain Francisco and is not likely to ever rain.

Racing is moving forward steadily and surely in Belgium. There are now five race courses in the neighborhood of Brussels and another is being pro-jected.

April 17 Lucien Lyne, who holds a retainer from E. Ribancourt, was at the head of the Belgian cheey list, having had 63 mounts and ridden 20 inners.

M. E. Ribancourt, was at the head of the Belgian jockey list, having had 63 mounts and ridden 20 winners.

It was part of the agreement in the sale last week of Direct to "Canada Jack" Adkin that W. J. Young will train the colt until after the Kentucky Derby, which Young is confident Direct will win.

Royal Lancer, by Royal Hampton, out of Lightfoot, which as a three-year-old bent Scentre at Goodwood and subsequently won the Derby Gold Cup, is doing well as a sire in Austria-Hungary.

Information from St. Louis says that the Cella brothers will have no further connection with any booking enterprise in the future. Charles Cella is operating a brokerage office in St. Louis and will not go east this season.

J. C. Ferries' stable, which includes St. Volma, Bonnie Kate, Ada O. Walker, Olambial and several promising two-year-olds, which were trained at Cumberland Park, is expected at Churchill Downs tomorrow in charge of trainer R. Cassady.

Paul J. Rainey has announced that DeMund and T. S. Martin will both be reserved from the sale of this stable, which will be held the latter part of the Pimlico meeting Mr. Rainey will leave for Europe May I and will play polo in England with the team which is being organized by Harry Payne Whitney.

Owing to the failure of the Jockey Club to grant a license to R. L. Delisser, the latter has turned its horses over to William Keating. Delisser got into trouble with the Jockey Club at Jamaica two years ago and has never been restored to good standing by that body, hence his failure to obtain a license.

August Belmont's two-year-old filly, Sou, winner of the opening race at Baltimore Saturday, is a mean-tempered filly, and it was on account of her crazy anties that the start was delayed. She repeatedly broke through the barrier and earned the distinction of being the first horse at the meeting to be placed on the schooling list.

J. F. Kelly, who rode John Garner Saturday at Baltimore to victory in the race for gentlemen riders, is a devoted horseman, is constantly in the saddle, has never lost a race in which he has ridden, and is the father of a boy of ten years, who is also a devotee of horsehack riding. Mr. Kelly is a cotton broker from Savannah, where he won several cups.

The method Joyner, the American trainer, adopts in plaiting the tails of his charges over their docks lends a curious appearance to the horses when they are seen in action. There can be no doubt that Mr. Whitney has a most elever and painstaking trainer. After the Crawfurd Plate race at Newmarket April 16 strappers approached Hillside and cooled him down by means of hand rubbing, a practice that is pursued on the training grounds.—London Sporting Life.

Life. When the English Racing Calendar suddenly ap-peared about two years ago containing advertise-needs it was two years ago containing advertise-teneds it was a summing, for the old fashioned official publication had been looked upon, not with a commercial eye, but as being purely and simply the organ of racing. The stewards have never really regarded with favor such a drastic change, and finally, at their recent meeting, just as suddenly decided to discontinue all advertisements, so that the Calendar appeared last as usual in its old and much more recognizable and dignified form.
